Thai food is, in a word, unique. It’s tastes and aromas appeal to all the senses. Distinct from other food types, it features unusual combinations of ingredients. Fish, meat, vegetables, coconut milk, different types of curries, wide variety of peppers, shrimp paste, peanut sauce, lemon grass, lemon leaves, fish sauce - the list is endless.

Thai Siam’s desserts are all homemade and delicious, yet unusual. We are proud to serve you sticky rice with fresh mango (seasonal), black sticky rice with coconut milk, sweet sticky rice with Thai custard and coconut ice cream. Beverages accompanying a Thai meal range from the familiar tea, coffee, soft drinks, beer and wine to the exotic iced Thai coffee and iced Thai tea. Each dish at the Thai Siam is prepared individually and we do not use monosodium glutamate (MSG). We welcome your comments. Thank You!
